

Washington

The Brave, The Wise, The Good,

Washington

Supreme in War, in Council and in Peace,

Washington

Valiant Without Ambition,

Discreet
Without Fear,

Confident
Without Presumption.

Washington

In Disaster Calm, in Success Moderate, in all, Himself.

Washington

The Hero, The Patriot, The Christian;

The Father of Nations, The Friend of Mankind,

Who

When he had won all, renounced all;

and sought

In the Bosom of his Family, and of Nature

Retirement;

And in the hope of Religion

Immortality.

The foregoing tribute to the memory of George Washington was written at his grave, in the year 1833, by Andrew Reed, an English Philanthropist, and left by him with the ladies of the General's family.

Presented to Agnes M. McKenna
