My darling Girl

You were so sweet

last evening and my not being with you tonight makes me a bit lonely. I am getting bad yet. I just want you all the time and feel as though my evening is wasted unless I see or hear from you.

I stood down on the corner quite a while this evening. I thought I expected to see you. But its good to be where you were the day before. I can then better think about what you do and say.

Do you know I am very much in love with you. And it grows every day. Little sweetheart, I wish I could tell you how very dear you are to me and how much

I love you. Its too great and big to talk about yet, I could never tell you in words. Some day I shall show you. And I shall live such a life that it will be proof each day that I love you best of all women. Dear little treasure I love you with every breath and best of all I know, you love me.

True always, and your very own,
Frank
